

I strongly oppose the creation of this restricted area since it would adversely affect general aviation. This area is in a major transportation corridor between San Diego and Los Angeles. Avoiding the restricted space would involve overwater flight or a significant detour over mountainous terrain.